

Benefits Of Doll Play For Children

Encourages children to express their emotions, especially affection.

Provides a sense of companionship and security.

Prompts the child to practice various commonly observed real-world actions.

Games involving dolls improve the child's creativity and imagination.

Dolls with button-enabled sounds and actions instill the basics of cause and effect.

Reference:

Age Determination Guidelines; CPSC