

Wedding Day Wishes For DAUGHTER & SON-IN-LAW

Be patient with each other, love each other and stay true to each other and I promise you no mountain will be too high to climb. Congrats on your wedding, my daughter and son-in-law.

Nothing can break you apart if your faith is strong enough to keep you two together! May the Lord bless you, my daughter and son-in-law.

You acted well during your waiting period, which made you get the best among all available men. Happy married life, virtuous daughter. God bless your home.

Wishing you success in your new titles, bride, groom, husband, wife, and any more you will pick up over the years together.

I cannot believe my little angel is now a bride and soon-to-be wife. May you and my handsome son-in-law enjoy all the good things marriage brings.
